Methodist Homes of Alabama and Northwest Florida (Methodist Home for the Aging) offers care communities for elders who want to be close to licensed or specialized care as well as retirement apartments for low-income elders. No matter the choice of community, our Wesleyan Heritage is evident. Faith-based communities, staffed by caring people offer elders and their families comfort, compassion, and peace of mind. We are home to the Fountain of Love fund, a financial assistance program for residents in a Methodist Homes care community who have exhausted their own resources. In fact, no resident of a Methodist Home has ever been asked to leave due to their inability to pay.
